

Summary of Reviews for

June 20-29, 2008

San Diego Musical Theatre continues its development as a first-rate musical theatre production company with Bye Bye Birdie. Every musical number is a show stopper - well-staged, well-rehearsed, well-danced and well-received by the audience.

- Rob Appel, SD Theatre Scene

Kudos to Chris Beyries for his versatile set, to Mojica for fine direction and energetic period choreography, to the fine band in the pit and to the excellent cast.

- Jean Lowerison, G&L Times

San Diego Musical Theatre has done a new take on an old classic and put together a fun and funny show ... creative direction and choreography that updated this old standard and made it feel new all over again.

- Diane Dunaway, SD Write Way

It's a nice surprise indeed to welcome San Diego Musical Theatre's joyously full staging. It's Mr. Mojica's Gower Champion-inspired choreography and his large ensemble of dancers that steal the show.

- Frankie Moran, sandiego